A new classification and compensation structure was adopted by City Council on September 5, 2018 effective December 13, 2018.

Employees hired into one of the above classifications after December 13, 2018 are exempt from classified service and considered at-will.

Employees who were exempt from classified service prior to the new classification and compensation structure and were allocated into one of the above at-will classifications will remain at-will.

Employees who were covered by classified service prior to the new classification and compensation structure and were allocated into one of the above at-will classifications will remain covered by classified service unless later promoted into an above at-will classification.

* Premium assignments are At-Will appointments. Employees retain status in classified service classification.
